

Patwino Worrtla Kodoi Dihi Open Space Park Needs You

Everyone deserves the outdoors, but not everyone can experience the wonders of nature. You can change that. Patwino Worrtla Kodoi Dihi Open Space Park will be a nature-park for all.

There is nothing like this place in Solano County. Its ridges offer stunning views of a changing world—and of what endures: the peaks of Mt. Diablo, the glittering delta, the wildflowers that return each spring.

A decade ago, this extraordinary land was saved from a development that would have offered vast views and nature trails, solely for a chosen few.

Instead, people like you looked at the oak-lined hills, spring flowers, soaring birds, and wildlife habitat and realized it was too beautiful to lose, and too special not to share with everyone.

Now, this 1,500-acre park is on the cusp of addressing a no less urgent need: to open it to the public in a manner that's safe, inspiring, and welcoming.

The Yocha Dehe Wintun Nation honored this vision, as well as their thousands of years of commitment to the land, by providing a Patwin name that means Southern Rock Home of the Patwin People.

Yet today, only a few can access this special place.

That's about to change, thanks to the compassion, generosity, and vision of people like you from all over Solano County. Park improvements were designed by our community to welcome all people and celebrate life's journey.

“Access to nature isn't just ‘nice to have.’ A positive experience in nature can help children thrive in ways they otherwise wouldn't. It can be transformative.”

– Juan Cisneros, Executive Director, ChildStart, Inc.

The All People's Trail provides access and enjoyment to people of all abilities.

Tom Muehleisen

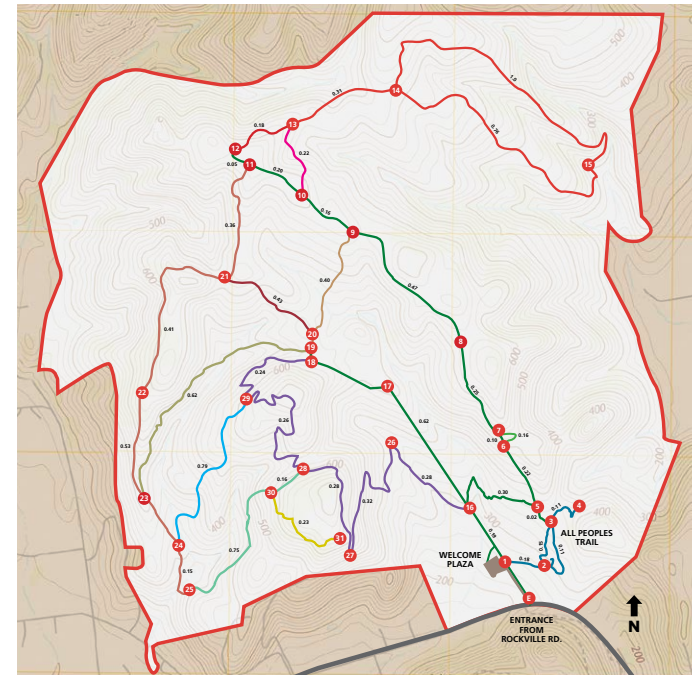

Tom Muehleisen

Charting new paths together with 12 miles of new trails

At the heart of the park stands the All People’s Trail, designed so people in wheelchairs, walkers, and strollers can fully enjoy the outdoors.

Once completed, family, friends, school groups, and people of all abilities will be able to enjoy this special place in a way that’s meaningful to them.

The Park will also support those who wish to experience more rugged long-distance hikes. As an essential link in the 550-mile Bay Area Ridge Trail, the park will one day connect hikers to trails in Napa County and beyond.

Visitors will enjoy 12 miles of trails for various abilities, fitness levels, and interests.

Welcome Plaza

Creating a welcoming nature-park means providing safe, comfortable, and thoughtfully designed places. Thanks to wide-spread and growing community support, the new improvements will include a “Welcome Plaza” with:

- Parking spaces designed for ADA needs, school buses, horse trailers, and standard parking
- Interpretive and directional signage
- ADA-accessible restrooms and water fountain
- Picnic Area designed for people with varied abilities including both standard and ADA picnic tables and a shade structure
- Sensory native garden with interpretive and educational signs designed for young children and families

Samuel Adams

All People's Trail*

The new trail will be designed so that everyone can experience the beauty of this place. Features include:

- .61 Mile Accessible Trail* that includes a scenic overlook of Suisun Valley
- ADA-accessible resting areas and shade structure
- Standard and ADA picnic tables
- Interpretive signage

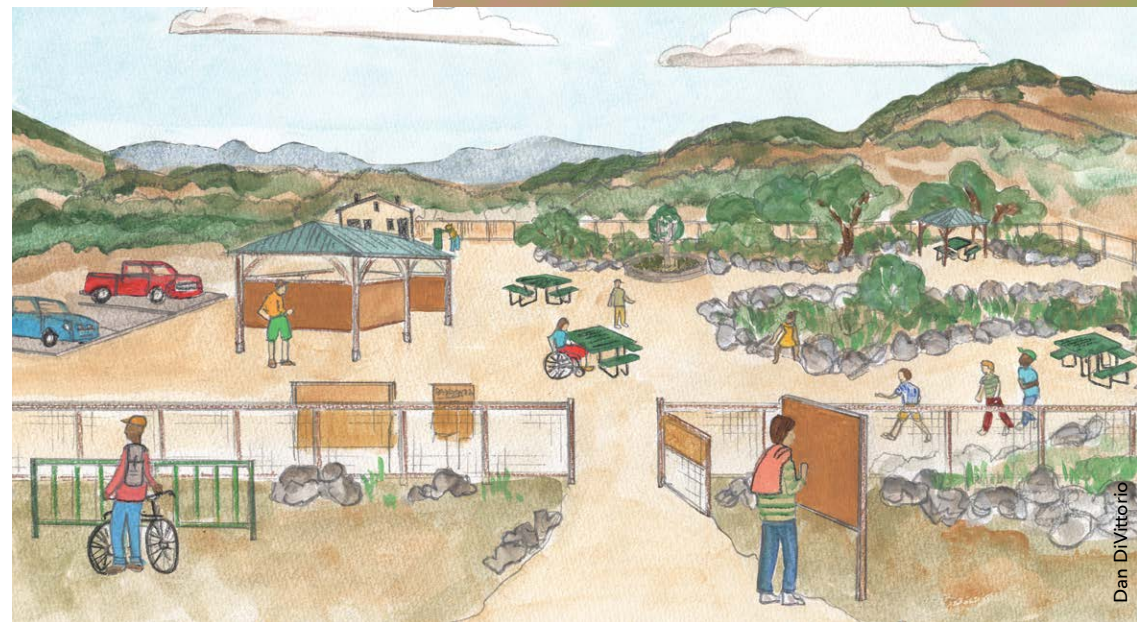

This park will be open to walkers, equestrians, cyclists, hikers, wheelchair users, and more!

“As a lifelong member of the disabled community, it is important to me to feel included. Having a space like the All People’s Trail is a wonderful addition to our community and I hope it will make more people feel included and more comfortable and safe being outdoors.”

– Kathryn M. Caretti, Esq., Vallejo

*Meets accessibility guidelines for Outdoor Developed Areas and Architectural Barriers Act Accessibility Standard

Solano Land Trust
198 Dobbins Street, Ste. # A
Vacaville, CA 95688

707-432-0150
solanolandtrust.org

“When I was out in nature on the All People’s Trail, I was focused not on what I was missing; I was focused on what I was getting. It’s a great gift to be able to experience the land in the best way you can.”

– Doug McConnell,
TV Journalist, the host and producer of *OpenRoad with
Doug McConnell*

The Park Needs You.

Your gift will make the park possible.

Please join hundreds of other people who care like you do and want to make this park a reality. The park is so close to being finished and opening for hiking, biking, riding horses, family picnics, and school field trips.

Your gift will both take us towards the finish line... and inspire others.

Now’s the time to tell your friends, family, and community members about how they can contribute to close the gap. All donations, of any size, are celebrated and welcome.

Tom Muehleisen

The surest way to build enthusiasm for this park is to bring people to it. Can you gather a group of ten or more potential supporters for a private visit?

Email laura@solanolandtrust.org to discuss a tour or different options for giving, like honoring a loved one or your family by purchasing a bench, table or plaque, or making a transformational gift.

Tom Muehleisen