Directions: From Kahului, take Highway 37 past Pukalani to the second junction of Highway 377. Turn left on 377 for about 0.3 mile, then right on Waipoli Road. The road travels through the first cattle guard and climbs up the mountain through a long series of switchbacks until it enters the forest at 6,400' elevation, where the pavement ends.

Route: Trail begins at Waipoli Road at 6,400' elevation and descends the mountain side to join the Boundary Trail at 5,600'. It passes through young pine plantings and open scrub and grasslands in the upper portion and through older stands of ash, redwood, and cedars below. A rustic trail shelter is located at the end of the trail above the forest fence overlooking Keokea and Kihei. Wear bright clothing. Be aware that you may encounter hunters who are hunting off the trail. Stay on trail.
